

To instill in future generations the love and art of quilt making.

FROM THE PRESIDENT'S DESK

From the President:

Tom and I took advantage of the opportunity to meet at Covenant Christian Church of Harrisburg last Saturday thanks to the guild members who attend there. We worked on bears but there were other projects being done also, such as Quilts of Valor, hospice quilts, and personal projects.

Rosey was working on name tags. Watching what was involved in putting them together renewed my respect and appreciation and made me proud to wear mine. Thank you Rosey and Paulette.

One ten year old girl, a granddaughter of one of our members became interested in watching Tom and I put the bears together. She wanted to learn so we took the opportunity to teach her. I taught her how to cut out a bear and told her to bring it back at the next Saturday event on April 2nd and I would show her how to put it together. Whether she does or doesn't come back, we sparked an interest, the first step in creating an experience that may lead to and interest in sewing as she gets older. Little steps lead to exploration. Steps such as these will help us fulfill the guild's motto. I think she had fun as did Tom and I.

I cooked today. I made a quilt sandwich!

Connie
Connie Richardson, President

WELCOME NEW MEMBERS

We have four new Guild members who signed in March. Johnnie McCallum, a new member in January, is also featured here as she was not introduced in last month's newsletter.

Johnnie McCallum: Johnnie comes to our guild with about 30 years of quilting experience. She has belonged to different quilt guilds in Tennessee. She was a member of the Zunie Quilting Circle in Nashville, Murany Quilting Guild in Columbia, and the Tennessee Valley Quilting Association. She was an RN by occupation and is now retired. She has moved to N. C. to take care of her mom and still travels back to Tennessee (the reason I couldn't get her in the last newsletter.) She looked us up on the Internet and she has attended our quilt shows. So, she joined us in January. She will be a good source for giving us ideas that worked in her other guilds. She wants to have fun, meet new friends, and work on a charity project when time allows while she cares for her mom. She is talking to a friend that will possibly join us next month and they are both interested in becoming involved with the raffle quilt.

Prudence Robinson: Prudence came from near Goshen, Indiana (Tom's and my area). She has two girls here and one in Virginia and two grandsons. She has been an off and on again quilter. She retired from working 27 years for Walmart spending most of her time working in the fabrics department which encouraged her interest in quilting. She enjoys traditional quilting, especially log cabin and star patterns. She is ready to expand her skills and is especially interested in learning more about quilting by machine.

Darleen Woodhaven: Darleen came from Spokane, WA and has lived in Alabama. She lived in Kannapolis for 22 years and recently moved to Concord. She is an Army veteran and worked as a medical tech in Concord for over 21 years. She has a son who is on Army active duty at Fort Campbell, KY. Now that she is retired she wants to sew more and is looking forward to expanding her skills, especially in machine quilting. She likes traditional patterns and is willing to learn new techniques. She would like to get involved especially with Quilts of Valor and has volunteered to work with the Activities group.

Lynn Green: Lynn has lived in Concord all her life. She is a hairdresser by profession and loves to quilt in her spare time. She did paper crafting and many of her collages reminded her of quilting. She made the transition to quilting through a client and has been quilting for 2-1/2 years. She has entered the Cabarrus County Fair with her own quilt designs and has won several ribbons. One of her winning quilts was an applique design of high heeled shoes. She finds it easier to design her own quilts than reading and following a pattern. She said that she is left handed and following patterns can sometimes be challenging to her. (I can relate to this.) However, she wants to learn traditional quilting, following a pattern, and learn more about machine quilting. She has done some YouTube classes but is looking forward to classes we offer. She will miss her mentor and former client, Carol Yandle and so will we.

Maria "Dawn" McGinnis: Dawn lives in Matthews, NC and has lived in NC all her life. She has a daughter who lives here also. She retired from DSS in Mecklenburg County where she worked for 31 years. She has quilted with a group at Hickory Road Baptist Church where they quilt for several organizations – Florence Crittenton, a home for pregnant women, Doves Nest, a woman's addiction program, and the Alexanders Children's Home. Her friend, Candy McManaway, has also encouraged her and brought her to our guild. She is interested in all forms of quilting but has been encouraged thru the artistic talent of Candy. She joined our guild to get her feet wet and wants to grow in all forms of quilting. She would like to make baby quilts for gifts.

MARCH 14, 2016 - MINUTES

President Connie Richardson welcomed everyone to the March meeting at 6:45pm. She thanked members and said she was proud of our community work. Two new members were introduced; Lynn Greene and Prudence Robinson and five guests were introduced. Fat quarters were given to members with March birthdays as Connie announced their names. Connie thanked our greeters and refreshment providers.

C.C. reported for publicity that the Coffee News, Independent Tribune and Cabarrus Magazine included announcements for our monthly meetings and asked members to give her any ideas for additional publicity. She also announced that Sew Saturdays will be held at Covenant Church in Harrisburg and notices will be posted in the newsletter. Connie added that May Sew Saturday would be to work on Victory Junction Bears and July would be Quilts of Valor. Members will be able to work on guild or individual projects.

Colleen Sain presented a purple PowerPoint look at Budget “Fund”amentals. Two-thirds of previous members have renewed in 2016, and unpaid members will be contacted to determine if they plan to renew. Unpaid members will soon be removed from the roster and email distribution lists. Colleen said the Raffle Quilt provides one-fifth of the program budget funds, and bylaws require members to sell tickets. A volunteer group to prepare the 2017 Raffle Quilt is needed. She suggested a group of 3-4 quilting friends could use batiks left from 2016 or other fabrics, and the committee could ask all members to make a block once a pattern is chosen. The committee would combine the blocks and assign one member to organize sale of tickets. Colleen will also collect “tickets out the door” for ideas to raise money. She suggested all ideas are welcome and they could be a modification of something we already do.

Connie announced February meeting minutes were in the newsletter. Melba made a motion to approve, Esta seconded, and a vote approved the minutes. She gave a thank you from the Activities Committee who said they are having fun getting things ready for members to do and asked members to pick up a ticket from the dinner party for next month’s activity.

Martha Austin gave an update on Sonja, who sends her texts every day. She asked members to send prayers and said Sonja appreciates the prayers and cards from members. Ona introduced Ann Bolick, a former guild member, for a trunk show. Ann has been taking weekly Bible study classes with her husband on Mondays. She gave a history of her life and quilting, including the first quilt she made in Illinois and the top she completed last week. Ann showed many different styles of the quilts she has made over the years.

Ona reported on upcoming programs that will be included in the newsletter. Barbara Hinson asked members to look at the Christmas program sign-up sheet during break. Nancy reported that two recent 2016 Raffle Ticket sales events have almost covered the costs and another sale will take place at Mary Jo’s this weekend. Nancy also asked for 2017 Raffle Quilt volunteers and said 10-12 yards of batiks are available. She also reminded members to Like, Share and Add Comments on the Guild FaceBook page.

Connie read a list of names of members that need to see Terry Patterson for Activities group during break.

After break, Connie reminded members to take their tiny quilts and leave the clothespin at the Activities tables. She recognized Carol Harris, former member who was in town and will be moving to South Carolina, and Carol Yandle, who attended her last meeting before she moves to Asheville. Connie asked if any veterans were present and three visitors/prospective members were recognized. Ona announced that the April workshop has homework required and suggested that the Galaxy Star workshop would make a possible raffle quilt.

Melba asked members attending quilt shows to let her know if they see anything they like. She announced Carolyn Sweet will be our featured quilter, and a wall will be provided to show other handcrafts beside quilts.

Barbara Hinson won the door prize.

At Show and Tell Merle donated a string pieced quilt top for Hospice, Ona turned in thirteen Victory Junction bears, Tom and Charlotte showed their projects from Susan Edmonson's workshop, Rosie showed her tote bag, and Trudy showed a Dr. Seuss quilt made for another organization's silent auction.

The meeting adjourned at 8:21 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,
Debbie Morse, Secretary

ACTIVITIES

Bring your Who's Coming to Dinner décor/accessory to this month's meeting to display and get your charm. Remember: it does NOT have to be completed, bring as is. I hope you have all had fun with this.

We will be playing a group game which will ultimately reveal the GUILD CHALLENGE 2016. Here are some more hints: Glacier, Naval base, Olympic Rings, Pyramid, Volcano

We have several reminders: You can still bring in your Tiny Quilts for a charm. You can still bring in your completed valentine for a charm. Make sure you have filled out your activities survey. You can still bring in your fat quarter to get your incentive pin.

Please remember to wear your name tag with your incentive pin and charms.

Looking forward to April fun.

Becky, Sara, Diane
Activities Committee

ACTIVITIES - PICTURES

Have you noticed the pictures being creatively used in the various displays by our activity committee? Please stop by (front of the room near piano) to have your picture taken for their fun activities. Many of you have asked why the directory photos cannot be used - well it is because of the way they were compressed when I published the directory as a PDF. And many of the original pictures are long gone from my computer. Please stop by - the pictures I still need include:

Anita Black, Diane Thayer, Pat Arndt, Linda Briminson, Dawn Hawkins, Angela House, Mildred Lamb, Linda Leano, Lisa Schreck, Juanita

Williams, Johnnie McCallum and Karen Knapp - plus any new members who recently joined.

Thanks ~ Terry Patterson

SEWING TIPS AND TRICKS

Sewing Tips – Storage Tips from Lisa Edwards

1. Store thread spools in clear plastic egg cartons. These are also great for stacking.
2. Cut strips from inexpensive vinyl/cling wrap and wrap it around a thread spool and bobbin to keep the thread from unraveling.
3. Buy medium and large pizza boxes for storing quilt blocks (new boxes only, please). They are easy to stack and your blocks are organized.

Anyone who wants to submit a sewing tip or trick for this section, send to cabarrus.quilters@gmail.com and title it Sewing Tips.

COMMUNITY OUTREACH

“Bear” Facts

We will meet on Saturday, April 2 and again on Friday, April 15th, at Covenant Christian Church in Harrisburg to make or stuff bears. If you want to learn how to make the bears, Tom and Connie will be there to show you. If this isn't your thing, we need people to stuff and hand sew the bears closed. We will also do this on Saturday, May 7th. We hope to finish our 100 bears at this time. We will bring them to the May Guild meeting to take a picture of the bears and their creators. Tom and I will schedule our trip to Victory Junction and give you a date as to when the bears will be delivered. If you haven't done a tour of this facility it is well worth the trip. You can plan to go with Tom and me.

Contact Colleen Sain for questions concerning Quilts of Valor.

Cabarrus Hospice - If you have quilts for Cabarrus Hospice call Carol Graham – 980-781-4170.

Any material that you feel might be useful to others who are making quilts for Quilts of Valor, Hospice or Victory Junction bears can be put on the back table to be used for that purpose. Any material not claimed by members of the guild will be put in the White Elephant collection.
