

To instill in future generations the love and art of quilt making.

FROM THE PRESIDENT'S DESK

From the President

I feel like I am still playing catch-up from the loss of our January meeting – the only real cold we have had all winter. To make-up for missing January, we tried to do too much and as a consequence I think the January subjects got slighted. There were some concerns expressed about rushing the vote for an increase in dues for 2018 without more explanation or discussion. I hope that Colleen's explanation under "Budget" in this newsletter will help explain. Normally, this would have been presented at our January budget meeting but we printed the budget in our February newsletter hoping this would suffice and show the need for the increase. If you still have questions, please e-mail Colleen Sain and she will answer your questions.

We continue to add new members and we want to keep them informed. This is why MENTORS are so important. Please invite a new member to sit with you to answer their questions. I may be using the word "MENTOR" too formally as I had one talented member to say she didn't think she qualified to be a mentor. It is not expected that mentors are able to answer all the questions but you can direct them to where they might find someone who can help them – especially with events and terms that are often used in our meetings. One comment that I receive over and over when I interview new members is "I felt so welcomed."

I want to thank everyone who took part in the Saturday workshop to make bears for Victory Junction. We have 79 completed bears (stuffed and ready for delivery). I gave several other kits to people to finish so I imagine we have close to 100 bears. We will make plans to take them to Victory Junction probably in May. You are invited to come with us so you can see Victory Junction.

The "Beginning Workshop" organized by Charlotte and Ona was a big success and a fun day for those who attended. I think every teacher became a student and walked away learning something new. We went to lunch afterwards and had a chance to get to know each other and new guild members.

There are several topics that need attention. They will be brought out in individual headings in this newsletter so they don't get lost in my rambling. I did want to mention that I forgot to ask for the "Wish and Kiss" cards at the end of the meeting but some of you did turn them in anyway. Thank you. I would appreciate hearing from all of you.

Enjoy these nice days and hopefully we won't have a repeat of January in March.

Connie Richardson, President

REMINDERS

Terry Patterson will start taking pictures at the March meeting. We have close to 30 new members so it is important to get this new directory out to members as soon as possible for contact information. Terry will take as many pictures as she can at the March meeting and finish in the May meeting. (She will not be at the April meeting.) She will redo pictures if you want; otherwise she will use the one in last year's directory.

If you have not paid your dues, you may do so at this meeting or send a check for $30 to Cabarrus Quilters Guild, Membership Chairman, Box 1883, Concord, NC 28026.

New Members: Our bylaws require each member to (1) pay your dues, (2) sell raffle quilt tickets, and (3) make a cuddle quilt for CVAN. (This project is due in November.)

MEMBERSHIP DUES CHANGE

From our Treasurer, Colleen Sain:

Last year when we presented the budget we showed spending more than we were taking in. That was ok because we do have reserves in the bank. However, we cannot keep doing that as our reserves will not last forever. We did a ticket out the door which asked you to recommend ways that we could earn more money for the guild to cover our expenses. We also took a serious look at making cuts where we could. We made cuts in the software used for the budget, cuts in quilt show budget, and in Programs. In this year's budget we cut the difference between our expected earnings and our expected spending to -$500. Unfortunately, we also had several increases in charges that we normally pay such as the building rent we host our meeting in and an increase in the monthly storage fees for our quilt show equipment. One of the top suggestions was to raise the membership fee. The board wanted to limit the increase on members so we chose to go with a $5.00 increase rather than a $10 increase. The $5.00 increase will ensure that we can present a balanced budget in the future and meet the goals of the guild as described in the bylaws.

If you are available to help with any of the above please contact Melba Mick.

CHALLENGE OPPORTUNITY

Judy Yandle brought Katherine Barrier, the Director of Volunteer services at CHS Northeast Hospital to talk to us about renovations at the hospital. She is the chairperson of the Art Committee and Judy, one of our guild members is serving on the committee. Judy is advocating for fiber art/quilts to be on display in the renovated area. Katherine is asking us to think along the lines of art that represents the "healing of the mind, body and spirit" theme. Using your artistic talents, these art pieces could be commissioned to be a part of the display. This could be a quilt you have already done in the past and you think it is compatible to this theme or a new creation that could serve as a dual purpose, both as an entry into the 2017 Quilt Show and being considered for the art display in the hospital. Judy would like some willing members to explore this venue with her as she would like to see The Cabarrus Quilters' Guild be represented. This would be a feather in our cap as well as excellent advertising for our guild. If you would like to be a part of this group, please call Judy at.

NEW MEMBERS

Deborah McLendon has lived in Charlotte all of her life. She has a son in Japan and a son and daughter here. She has 15 grandchildren, 6 great grandchildren and 2 great-great grandchildren. She joined a quilting group at her church along with Gail Toliver, one of our members. They provided quilts for various charities, including flood victims in Princeville, NC, hospitals for HIV patients, people on dialysis, and prenatal units. I actually met her at a Pineapple Fabric Sale in November and she said she heard good things about our group and was interested in joining. I asked her what she liked about our group and she said "everything." She sat with Mildred Lamb who “mentored” her and made her feel welcome.

Mary Anne Lynch came to this area in 2001 from the Bronx in New York City. She worked in the field of nuclear medical technology and later became a math and science teacher. She has three daughters and a son and one grandchild. She is on a leave of absence from teaching for a year and decided that she wanted to learn to quilt. She took beginner classes at We’re Sew Creative and is enjoying her new skill. She joined us at our beginner class on Saturday. Darlene Woodham invited her to our group. She loves bright colors, traditional patterns with a twist, and would like to do the wedding ring pattern. She enjoyed seeing “Show and Tell” and looks forward to learning from others. She is being mentored by Denise Rehlander and looks forward to meeting other members. She volunteers at Daniel Stowe Botanical Gardens and loves to play golf.

Sarah Preston lives in Salisbury. She has a son and a daughter-in-law, a granddaughter, and a step-grandson. She is a retired RN. Sarah’s interest in quilting started at the age of 3 or 4 watching her grandmother quilt. Her grandmother would give her scraps to sew. Sarah along with Linda Leano and Phyllis Moysan did the Salisbury raffle quilt last year, a Judy Niemeyer pattern. Sarah did the applique flowers in the border. Sarah joined our guild because she is interested in our programs and workshops. She also likes the activities and enjoys seeing the show and tell portion of our program. She likes traditional patterns and is interested in expanding her skills – especially in the use of applique. She is well connected with at least two of our members mentioned above but looks forward to meeting people in our guild.

Valerie McGarity grew up in the state of Washington but has lived in the Charlotte area for the past 36 years. She was a first grade teacher for many years. She has 2 sons, and two grandchildren and is expecting the third in May. That means a baby quilt. After retiring from teaching, she is enjoying her craft room where she does quilting and other crafts. She came across some of the tops her grandmother made, repaired them and distributed them to other members of her family. She chose our guild because she felt welcomed and enjoys the activities and “show and tell”. She is looking forward to working on charity projects and meeting new people. She wants to learn more about paper piecing and applique techniques. She was introduced to our guild through Linda McGlammery, who shares the same hair salon.

Sandy Winters came from LaPorte, Indiana to be with her daughter Denise Rhelander who joined our group last November. She also has 3 sons, and 6 grandchildren and 4 great grandchildren. Sandy will only be with us until the summer as she will then go back to Indiana. LaPorte is in the Lake Michigan snow belt area so at least she will miss that. Sandy enjoys doing the log cabin and the nine patch patterns. Sandy and Denise both took lessons back in Indiana. Having the opportunity to be together, to be connected to the same guild and doing something they love will bless us with another family bond. Right, Melba?

LAST MEETING MINUTES

Cabarrus Quilters Guild
Minutes of General Membership Meeting
January 2, 2017

President Connie Richardson opened the meeting at 6:45pm stating the night would be very busy with lots going on after the January meeting was cancelled due to snow. New members were welcomed and a total of 14 guests were recognized.

Connie read a poem and January, February birthdays were announced. Vice President C.C. Estey said fat quarters would be passed out in March, along with the door prize. Refreshments were provided by the board and Darlene Woodham. Connie mentioned that decaf coffee and tea was available and would be provided during the cold months. Connie asked for approval for December minutes printed in the January newsletter. Tom Richardson made a motion to accept, Charlotte Doyle seconded and there was no discussion. A vote passed and the minutes were approved.

Connie announced a proposed budget and 2016 actual results were emailed to members after the January meeting was cancelled and asked for any questions. At the January board meeting a vote passed for a dues increase from $30 to $35 effective in 2018 to cover operating expenses that offset the quilt show income and for a net loss of the guild. Connie asked for discussion. With no discussion, Ona Phillips made a motion to approve the increase, Tom seconded, and a vote was taken. The majority voted to approve, with some opposed, and the increase passed.

Judy Yandle introduced Katherine Barrier, Director of Volunteer Services for CMC-Northeast, to present some information about the art to be displayed at the new three story building for cardiac patients. Katherine said the goal was to include local artwork, and described the renaming of areas of the hospital to reflect nature. Examples she gave included the Cotton Lobby, Pine, Dogwood and Heritage areas. There will be a focus on fiber arts to warm up the areas with mind, body, spirit and healing themes. She gave an estimate of eighteen inch square wall hangings covered with acrylic to provide germ and dust protection, arranged in a grouping. Susan Edmonson asked about security and mentioned theft of displayed art in the past. Katherine replied that the art will be protected. The permanent exhibit is expected to be displayed in 2020 and any comments or questions should be passed to Connie to forward to Judy and Katherine.

Charlotte introduced our speaker, guild member Barb Bruce, who gave a program “Beginning to Now”, a display of her quilts over the years. Barb said she does not follow the traditional path, likes mystery quilts and color, group and art challenges. She challenged members to find ideas and inspiration everywhere and she hopes to be “Stepping it Up” this year as she has more than seventy five UFO’s.

Charlotte and Ona then described upcoming programs will continue to be $30. Saturday, February 18th will be a free workshop at Epworth from 9am to 12pm with mini stations for members to watch and learn how others make quilts. March 13 th will be Tips and Tricks for Stress-Free Quilting lecture by Laura Blanchard with a Shadow Play workshop Tuesday, March 14 th that requires some preparation and a $6 pattern. April 10-11th is Bonnie Shropshire’s “Working Hands lecture and no-sew Stained Glass” workshop. May 8-9 th is Judy Heyward’s Trunk Show and Machine Appliqué workshop. A reminder was given that programs fees are due the month prior to the workshop.

Connie asked the Activities committee for announcements before the break and members were asked to have 6 at each table. Connie asked members to pay members dues to Linda Brimanson, see Colleen Sain for raffle tickets, and to write on slips at each table a “kiss and a Wish” – something good and suggestions for improvement for the board to review for 2017, during the break. After the break the Activities Committee stated they are continuing the “Getting to Know You” theme with additional goals to have fun and make quilts to enter in the quilt show. Instructions for Clue 1 (of 3) for the Mystery Quilt were distributed. Members can win prizes for bringing in the memory project, items for the store to trade earned stamps at year end, bringing game sheets to each meeting, and completing mystery quilt clues. We played a game similar to Chutes and Ladders, with members earning stamps for participating and winning.

Announcements: Melba Mick reminded members to take Quilt Show flyers and distribute at quilt shop visits. Charlotte announced a contest for the most workshops attended with the prize of a free workshop and said Connie will draw a winner if there is a tie. Connie announced Nancy had completed 24 Victory Junction bears, Cathey Hooper 12 and about 30 were completed at the recent workshop. Colleen thanked the members of the Quilt of Valor group that worked on the displayed 2017 Raffle Quilt –“ Colorful Dreams” - using batiks members turned in for the 2016 quilt. Connie announced Hospice had contacted her to say they had only 6 quilts left and members can attend a 2 day workshop March 24-25th to work on bears, hospice quilts or any other Community projects. Quilts can be given to Debbie Morse to take to Hospice and 6 quilts were collected. Merle Clifford completed 25 quilt tops for hospice using fabrics purchased from White Elephant. Connie and Tom are quilting but need backing fabric. Many items were displayed for Show & Tell. Door prize winner was Susan Edmonson and C.C. will see that she gets the prize.

Meeting adjourned at 9.10 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,
Debbie Morse, Secretary

2017 & 2018 RAFFLE QUILTS

Remember to pick up your raffle quilt tickets if you have not done so. See Colleen Sain to get your tickets. Thanks to Colleen and her committee for making this beautiful raffle quilt for 2017!

We are still in search of a 2018 Raffle quilt committee.

REFRESHMENTS /GREETERS MARCH

NOTE: As you plan which months you will help with refreshments and greeting, we ask that you do not sign up for both volunteer jobs in the same month. The signup sheets will be available at each meeting for you to sign up until full.

Greeter: No one signed up as a greeter for March but it would be good to have someone to greet, especially new people as CC sometimes gets busy at the door.

Refreshments: Barbara Hinson, Stephanie Mays, Mattie Johnson, Alice Springs and Anita Black.

2017 – PROGRAMS & WORKSHOPS

GUILD LIBRARY

This month the library will be bringing books on paper piecing. Becky Knauer donated the first four novels in Jennifer Chiaverini quilt series. If you haven't read them, they are excellent. Once you start reading you'll want to read the whole series. The Concord Library has the series. Please check the library list on the web and let June know if there is something you would like her to bring. junedale@hotmail.com.

SEW TUESDAYS

Sew Tuesdays are held the first and third Tuesdays of each month at the Cabarrus County Senior Center, 331 Corban Ave., SE, Concord, NC. Hours are 9 am until 3 pm on the first Tuesday and the third Tuesday of each month. You may bring anything to work on. If you need help with a technique or project, someone will be able to help you. If you need information contact Mildred Lamb.

COMMUNITY OUTREACH

Update on Hospice Quilts

Hospice would prefer quilts with widths of 30-44 inches and no longer than 60 inches. However, all contributions are appreciated.

Save the Date! March 24th and 25th, we'll have a retreat to make Hospice Quilts at Covenant Christian Church in Harrisburg. You might want to start collecting those 5 inch squares if you are not using them, scraps and simple patterns that you like. We will also need yardage of background material. Details will be provided at the March meeting.

Tom Richardson will quilt tops. Batting will be provided by the guild but we do ask that backing be provided. Donations of material are accepted for backing.
