

Cabarrus Quilters' Guild Newsletter

August 2018

To instill in future generations the love and art of quilt making.

FROM THE PRESIDENT'S DESK

We have a lot going on in August! Don't forget to bring your paperwork for the quilt show, something to share at the picnic, your completed quilt challenge with your paint chips, and school supplies to donate. Hope everyone has their quilts ready. I can't wait to see them. We always have such a wonderful amount of quilts. It is very hard to vote on one.

Just a reminder to committees about the group meeting on Monday, August 6th at 11:30 at the Johnny's Farmhouse Restaurant 290 Copperfield Blvd NE Concord NC 28025. Hope to see everyone there.

It is only 5 weeks until we go on our bus trip, and I am getting so excited and so looking forward to all the fun and friends. See everyone at the guild meeting on August 13th. I will have the door unlocked at 5:30 for anyone who want to come a little early with your food, paperwork, and challenge quilt.

Happy sewing and creating
Barbara Hinson

IMPORTANT GUILD ANNOUNCEMENTS

QUILT SHOW

Our "2018 Then & Now Quilt and Fiber Art Show" will be September 21 and 22 (Friday - 10 am to 5 pm and Saturday - 10 am to 4 pm) at Concord First Assembly in the Village Shopping Center Suite 8 (located at 280 Concord Parkway N Concord, NC - next to Big Lots). Don't forget that entry forms are due August 13th. Please see the website for more details including the entry form and show rules.

QUILT SHOW- WHITE ELEPHANT BOOTH

Each year at our quilt show, the guild sponsors a booth of our own. It is a little like a tag sale for quilters and all profit goes to the guild. We sell new or gently used donated items of interest to quilters.

Marguerite Klaiber will be accepting donations for the booth from now through August. As you are doing your spring cleaning, please keep the White Elephant in mind. You can bring donations to guild meetings (look for her purple wagon there) or if you wish, arrange to bring them directly to her home.

Popular items include: thread, rulers, quilt patterns, books, magazines, 100% cotton fabric, tools, etc.

Please Note: Due to limited space we cannot accept non-quilting things or fabric.

You can contact Marguerite Klaiber.

NEW MEMBERS

Please welcome our newest member -- Angie Graeber. She is a retired court reporter (Cabarrus County Superior). She became interested in quilting in the early 80's, but did not start actively quilting until after her retirement. Angie's favorite quilts to sew are patchwork quilts. She would like to learn more about applique and paper piecing. She is also interested in gardening, genealogy, and cooking.

If you want to enter a quilt you must have the form filled out and a picture of the quilt for the August guild meeting. Barbara had everyone that was on the quilt show committee stand and everyone applauded.

Terry Patterson showed the hats for cancer patients. The material must be washed and no fabric softener or spray starch can be used.
