

Cabarrus Quilters' Guild Newsletter

January 2019

To instill in future generations the love and art of quilt making.

FROM THE PRESIDENT'S DESK

As we go into the new year, we all reflect on the year that has just passed. I would like to challenge each member to look to the year ahead and not ponder on the past. Think of all the new adventures that we have ahead of us. Some will not be pleasant; however, we can learn from them. Think about how we all can spend a little more time with family and friends, laugh a little more, give a little more of ourselves, and just enjoy this life that has been given to each of us.

Just a reminder our meeting for January is our annual business meeting. I hope everyone plans to attend. We will be going over and voting on the budget for 2019. We will also be going over some of the happenings for this year and reminders of upcoming events.

If you have not joined for 2019 yet, please plan to do so at meeting. Happy New Year to everyone and I hope you have a great and safe celebration. See you next year!

Happy sewing,
Barbara Hinson

LAST MEETING MINUTES

Cabarrus Quilters Guild
Minutes of General Membership Meeting
Monday Dec. 17, 2018

President Barbara Hinson began the meeting at 6:30. Lisa Edwards made a motion to pass the November minutes, Kathy Coble second the motion. If you have not turned in a CVAN quilt please do so at the January meeting. If you did turn one in and your name is not on the list please mark your name off. There were quite a few people that turned in the money for the tickets for the raffle quilt. Denise Rilander won the raffle quilt. Barbara Hinson spoke about the bylaws that everyone is to pay dues, turn in a CVAN quilt and sell raffle tickets. Without that money the guild would not be able to pay for famous speakers. Natalie Swilley gave new membership cards if you paid your dues. They need to be paid at the January meeting.

People in the guild need to think about volunteering for the board at the end of next year. There needs to be a president, vice president, treasurer and secretary. Karen Swart named all the December birthdays. Diane Viera and Carolyn Zaleski won the balloons. Delores Swartz became a new member. The guild is asking for someone to take over guild publicity. Cecillia Estey has had to resign because of responsibilities with her husband. Sharon Smith won the door raffle.

Barbara Hinson reminded committee members that there will be a meeting on February 4th at Johnney’s restaurant at noon.

The Christmas meeting was great! Many thanks to the women who put it on.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:30.

Respectfully submitted,
Claudia Hoerner, Secretary 12/17/2018
