

Cabarrus Quilters' Guild Newsletter

August 2011

From the President's Desk:

Stephanie Newbrough

We are quickly approaching the end of the year and this means it is election time. I know that everyone is busy getting last minute things ready for the quilt show but please remember that while the quilt show is the biggest thing we do every year it's not the only thing we do. I still need a volunteer for the nominating chair. There are only three things you have to do in this position. 1-Make phone calls to members asking if they are interested in running for office. 2-Send the list of members running for office to the newsletter chair in October and November. 3-At the November meeting conduct the elections.

If we do not have someone willing to get the nominations together we will not have elections. Without an election we will not have a board for next year. If you are willing to help out with elections please let me know by our meeting this month.

Happy Quilting

For the August meeting we will have our annual picnic and Guild Challenge. In September the Art Group will present a small trunk show of several projects they have been working on and discuss “How to Organize Your Own Small Group”.

In October Laura Wasilowski is our guest speaker. You can check out Laura at her website www.artfabrik.com.

July, 2011 Minutes:

July 2011 Guild Meeting Minutes

Stephanie Newbrough opened the meeting by having guests introduce themselves and welcoming them to our Guild. She also recognized members' birthdays.

Stephanie reminded members to pick up their Raffle Quilt tickets from Joanna Cupp.

Victoria Gallo is working on a project to complete her Gold Girl Scout award. She brought pillowcases and asked for volunteers to help her complete 300 pillowcase dresses for Haiti and under privileged children in the U.S. Members gave her 58 dresses that they made.

Rebecca Verrier-Watt and Candy McManaway discussed future workshops.

The guest speaker for the July meeting was Stacey Michell, who showed us her fabulous dyed fabrics and talked about her "2 for 1" hula applique class.

After a short break, Marguarite Klaiber reminded members that she is still collecting items for the White Elephant table at the Quilt Show.

Candy McManaway reminded members to complete the UFO's for the Silent Auction. There was also a show and tell of Silent Auction items which had been donated.

After members showed their beautiful Show and Tell items, the door prize was given away, and the meeting was ended.
