

Cabarrus Quilters' Guild Newsletter

November 2012

From the President's Desk:

I am so happy to be in central North Carolina. As I watch the news I cannot believe the devastation Hurricane Sandy has caused. Just doesn't seem right to have a tropical storm coupled with a northeastern storm. I have no doubt that our neighbors to the north and northwest will rebuild. That's the American way. People who have lost everything are stopping total strangers to ask if they could help them. I wonder if I would have the fortitude to do the same.

I tried to have a conference call on Tuesday hosted by a company in Michigan. The wind blew so hard enough they lost power. Yea for cell phones. I keep hearing this was the storm of the century. Hopefully that means we won't see anything this severe for a long, long time. We need to count our blessings.

I hope this doesn't prevent citizens from voting. The election seems to have taken a back seat to the weather but it is important for every registered citizen to vote. This month we will have our own election of officers. Please put our important meeting on your calendar.

On another note we need volunteers for next years' quilt show. Have you thought of talking to your guild friends and create teams. The tasks would be less stressful if you can work with a partner. There isn't a rule that every chair has to be held solo. Give this some thought. I'm available to talk over any idea you may have.

Remember to vote.

Carol Harris

2012 Guild Retreats

Retreat News

On September 19th thru September 24, 2012, twelve members of the guild and two guests attend the bi annual fellowship at Tabor Retreat, Lynchburg, VA.

The retreat is a great opportunity for guild members to get together to laugh, share tips and techniques, shop and enjoy some wonderful meals. Everyone enjoyed the solitude offered by the retreat center. It was a very relaxing, productive time for all. Members attending the retreat were Joyce Furr, Marsha Haney, Deb Seatz, Joanna Cupp with her sister Sara Trull, Ruth Garrott, Carol Harris, Sarah Burmus, Diane Thayer, Mattie Johnson, Phares Sechler and her guest Alice Sloop, Mildred Lamb and Lisa Edwards. This group worked on projects ranging from bible covers to quilted cup liners as well as flannel jackets and just plain ole quilts!

Dates for the 2013 retreats will be published soon! Please consider setting some time aside next year for this event.

Sew Tuesdays:

Mildred Lamb – quiltnut3@windstream.net

Do you need help with a technique or a project? Mildred is the best. Sew Tuesdays are held the first and third Tuesdays of every month from 9 a.m. until 11 a.m. at the Concord Senior Center. Contact Mildred Lamb at the above address, or call her at 704-933-9603 to let her know you are planning to attend.

We plan to add community projects to do either on Sew Tuesdays or Saturday sewing sessions. We will talk about this in the meeting.

Guild Library:

Marsha Haney – itsmarsha@ctc.net

If you see any books that you would like to “check out” on the web site library list, send an e-mail to Marsha to bring the book to the next meeting and you may check them out.

Sew Saturday Class

Sew Saturday- Ann bolick will be teaching TUMBLING BLOCKS pattern for the November sew Saturday.

Quilt Guild Opportunity

Beginning in September, Judy Lea's Quilt Studio will be open from 4 to 7 on the Monday of the Guild Meeting. It's the lavender house on McGill Ave. This is a great opportunity to pick up those quilting items needed before you come to our meeting.
