FROM THE PRESIDENT'S DESK

Hello Quilty Friends,

We survived our first post-COVID quilt show! Many thanks to Julie Love and Stephanie Newbrough for organizing it and all those who helped. We will be announcing the winners of the quilt show at our next guild meeting on November 14th. It will be held at the Kannapolis First Wesleyan Church at 6:30 pm.

We will also be collecting comfort quilts. If you haven't turned one in yet for this year, please make sure to bring one in.

Bring in your Round Robin Quilt for Show and Tell. We can't wait to see what has been in the works all year.

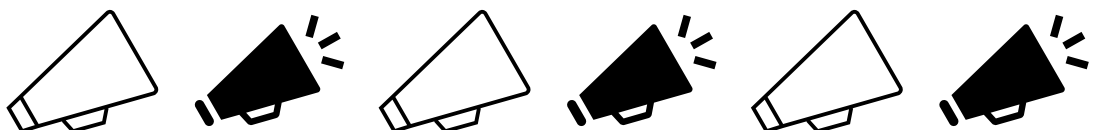

The workshop on November 15th will be led by Karen Bronkhorst and Jo Ann Hahn. We will be getting ready for the holidays with some wreath making. I am all ready with a bag full of pinecones. This is going to be interesting.

It is so nice to know that we will have a place to call home for the next year. I reserved the Harrisburg Presbyterian Church for our guild meetings and workshops based on our vote last month. Thanks to Evelyn Dugan for sharing her church with us and thanks to the committee for doing all the research.

Happy Thanksgiving!

Quilty Love,

Jackie

Julie Love spoke about our 2022 Quilt Show. We needed more members to enter quilts, but Stephanie worked with what she received and recruited a 'featured quilter'. Our own Sylvia Stancil will be featured and will fill 8 panels with her quilts. A mover was hired to bring everything needed from our storage unit. Poles and drapes will be hung first to divide the room into vendor space and to hang quilts. Julie was asked to repeat our list of vendors: Sew Fabulous from Winston-Salem, JS Linens, My Scrappy Quilter, MLC Findings, K&J Sewing, Carolina Quilt Studio, Concord Sew and Quilt, Sew Perfect Tables, Lynne's Outlet and HHM (member booth).

She reminded members we need everyone to help to set-up on Thursday, Oct 13, beginning at 9am. Vendors will also be arriving on Thursday to set up. Anyone working the morning shifts on Friday and Saturday are asked to arrive by 8:30am

White Elephant items can be delivered between 9am and noon. Anyone with items to donate will need to bring them already labeled on set up day. Only cotton fabric and quilting items will be accepted. Label the cotton fabric measurements in ¼ yard increments only. Pricing is established at the show. Anyone that helps set up the White Elephant will get the first opportunity to purchase items.

Silent Auction, Terry Patterson and Jo Ann Hahn are ready for the show.

Alice Witek seconded the motion and membership approved.

Confirmed date is the Saturday after Thanksgiving (Nov. 26) during the Holiday Festival at the Cabarrus Brewery.

Karen Bronkhorst, Programs chair reminded the membership we did not have a program or workshop this month. In November we will collect food for CCM and host a speaker from Hospice. Show and tell will be of our Round Robin quilt tops. The November workshop will be on wreath making. Hosted by Karen Bronkhorst and JoAnn Hahn. December will be our Holiday Party (see below for more information about this). January will be our business meeting to kick off our new year and programs for 2023 year will be shared.

Sandra and Ann spoke in place of Activities Chair, Shanna Rogers. Their reminded members to get their own round robin bags and encouraged everyone to complete their quilt tops in time for November Show and Tell.

RAFFLE PRIZE

MEMBERSHIP

We had 55 members present for our meeting on October 10th. Six members attended by Zoom. We had no guests or new members present.

Thank you,
Ann Weaver

RAFFLE QUILT

October was a big month for raffle ticket sales! We sold tickets at Gibson Mill on October 8th and took in $130. Thank you to Mary Shea, Jo Hysell, Colleen Sain and Tiffany Harwood for helping me with that event. On October 10th, we had our meeting and members turned in $94 in raffle money. Then on October 14th and 15th we had our show and sold $245 in ticket sales. Thank you to Pat Hawkins, JoAnna Cupp, Carolyn Sweet, JoAnne Fisher, Valerie McGarity, Kathy Coble, Jackie Sabo, Phyllis Moysan, and Linda Leano for helping me with that event! None of this would be possible with your support!

Our next opportunity to sell tickets will be November 3rd at Pineapple Fabrics Warehouse Sale. Julie Love is handling this event. She and Terry Patterson are setting up and working the morning shift. Sandra Allred and Jackie Sabo are working the afternoon shift and take down. If you plan to attend the sale, please consider dropping by the tent and offering our awesome volunteers a little break. Please contact Julie if you can help with this event. The Pineapple Warehouse sale is an event not to be missed! It is only about an hour north of here and some fabric is as low as $3.33 a yard!

Then, we will have one final sale for the year at the Holiday Festival at Cabarrus Brewery on November 26th which is the Saturday after Thanksgiving. Last year this sale netted us $366 in sales. I will be looking for volunteers for this event at the November meeting. Please mark your calendars!

Last but not least, thank you to all the members who have returned your raffle ticket money and stubs. We still have 23 people who need to do so. Since we raffle the quilt off in December, we need ticket stubs returned by the November meeting to avoid having any tickets outstanding at raffle time. Thank you, in advance, for your cooperation.

Please contact me with any questions.
Ann Weaver

COMMUNITY OUTREACH PROGRAM

First, I want to thank all of you who made contributions to the White Elephant during the Quilt Show. I know you had to make an extra effort in marking your contributions, but it really paid off in the profit we made at the show. The Outreach program will benefit from this as well as other programs for the Quilt Guild. I also collected some leftover material which will come in handy in our workshops at the Fire Station.

The next Fire Station event is Friday, November 11th from 9 until 3. I will bring some of the materials to be cut into five" squares and 2 and 1/2" strips. Ideas for the use of these measurements will be shared at the workshop and at the November meeting. Again, this is a charity workshop, so you can work on any charity project, sew some of the blocks that will be shown, or just cut material into these squares or strips. I hope to see you on the 11th. I will be displaying all of the finished quilts, approximately 60 of them to be sent to the various organizations we decided to sponsor in 2022 at the November Quilt meeting. I will bring those that need binding also. I hope to see you at the workshop on the 11th and the Quilt Meeting on the 14th. With 8 "I Spy Quilts" and 6 quilts ready to be bound added to the 127 quilts already delivered, we have over 200 charity quilts given in 2022, and that isn't even counting the quilts that will be turned in in November. What a great accomplishment. Thanks to all the members who supported this "giving back." If you have ideas for sharing in 2023, please let me know so I can organize the list for voting.
