

Cabarrus Quilters' Guild Newsletter

October 2012

From the President's Desk:

I can't believe another month has flown by and the quilt show is just around the corner. I'm really getting excited. Hope the rain will stay away long enough for the show. I helped with the judging but didn't have time to stop long enough to admire each quilt. It's only taken me 3 years to be able to recognize individual blocks on most quilts. If I read the directions enough times I can usually figure out a block. I find that I'm willing to take on more complicated blocks.

Our Row by Row is almost over. The revealing will be at our October meeting. I can't wait for everyone to see their completed top. While talking to everyone, we all wanted to do our best work each month. That just increased the pressure we put on ourselves. This was definitely a learning experience for me. Trying to stay within each theme was sometimes difficult. Normally I can take the time to image a completed quilt but changing themes every month was a challenge. My interpretation of the guidelines forced me out of my comfort zone. Don't know what I would have done without being able to call friends and Google. I hope everyone enjoyed seeing our creations every month.

Thanks to everyone for keeping us in the dark about our quilts.

Just reminder note. Your cuddle quilts are due next month. Should be a great show & tell. See you at the quilt show.

Carol

2012 Guild Retreats

Retreat News

On September 19th thru September 24, 2012, twelve members of the guild and two quests attend the bi annual fellowship at Tabor Retreat, Lynchburg, VA.

The retreat is a great opportunity for guild members to get together to laugh, share tips and techniques, shop and enjoy some wonderful meals. Everyone enjoyed the solitude offered by the retreat center. It was a very relaxing, productive time for all. Members attending the retreat were Joyce Furr, Marsha Haney, Deb Seatz, Joanna Cupp with her sister Sara Trull, Ruth Garrott, Carol Harris, Sarah Burmus, Diane Thayer, Mattie Johnson, Phares Sechler and her guest Alice Sloop, Mildred Lamb and Lisa Edwards. This group worked on projects ranging from bible covers to quilted cup liners as well as flannel jackets and just plain ole quilts!

Dates for the 2013 retreats will be published soon! Please consider setting some time aside next year for this event.

Sew Tuesdays:

Mildred Lamb – quiltnut3@windstream.net

Do you need help with a technique or a project? Mildred is the best. Sew Tuesdays are held the first and third Tuesdays of every month from 9 a.m. until 11 a.m. at the Concord Senior Center. Contact Mildred Lamb at the above address, or call her at 704-933-9603 to let her know you are planning to attend.

We plan to add community projects to do either on Sew Tuesdays or Saturday sewing sessions. We will talk about this in the meeting.

Guild Library:

Marsha Haney – itsmarsha@ctc.net

If you see any books that you would like to “check out” on the web site library list, send an e-mail to Marsha to bring the book to the next meeting and you may check them out.

Quilting Class

Quilting and sewing classes start Sept. 13th at the Levine campus of Central Piedmont Community College. If you know anyone that needs to tweak their skills or is just interested to see if quilting is their "thing", please tell them about the class. The information is located under Corporate and Continuing Education and called the Art of Quilting.

Claudia Reynolds, Instructor

(This woman is great at promoting our show ~ she brought her class last year and intends to do it again in 2012!)

Sew Saturday Class

We will not have a Sew Saturday in October. Please take the time to relax and enjoy the autumn weather that I know is coming. Consider taking a walk with someone special.

Quilt Guild Opportunity

Beginning in September, Judy Lea's Quilt Studio will be open from 4 to 7 on the Monday of the Guild Meeting. It's the lavender house on McGill Ave. This is a great opportunity to pick up those quilting items needed before you come to our meeting.
