2020 - 2021 GUILD OFFICERS

PRESIDENT

Jackie Sabo

VICE PRESIDENT

Jo Ann Hahn

SECRETARY

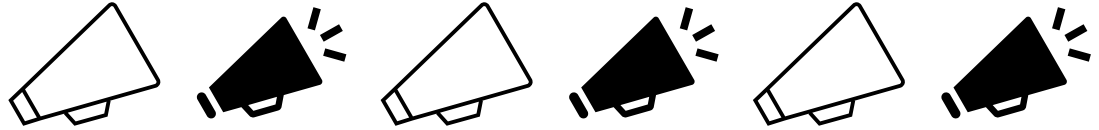

Sandra Allred

TREASURER

Johanna Hysell

To instill in future generations the love and art of quilt making.

FROM THE PRESIDENT'S DESK

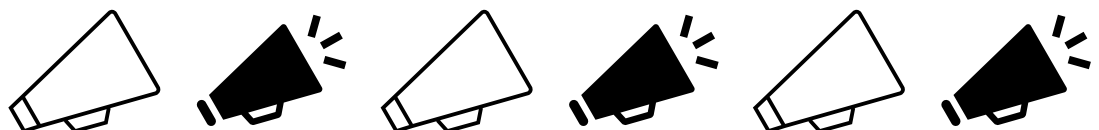

Hello Quilty Friends,

Our next meeting is on October 10th at First Wesleyan. We have a lot going on this month and we need your help:

1. Election of 2023 Officers – We are still looking for a candidate for Vice President. If you are interested, please contact Kathy Coble or Janneke Bahamon.
2. If you want to get involved in the guild another way, committees are always looking for help. If there is an area you are interested in supporting, please feel free to contact the chair of that committee directly. Committee chairs are listed at the end of our newsletter.
3. Report from the committee appointed to research locations for our meetings and workshops – the committee will present their findings and recommendations. We would like to have a vote from the full membership at the October meeting, so we can secure the location as soon as possible.
4. Quilt Show Prep – there are lots of vacancies on the sign-up sheets. Please sign up. If you already have, please consider signing up for another slot as well.
5. Round Robin – Yay! We get to see our blocks. The suspense is building. I am looking forward to seeing what everyone has done.

See you at the guild meeting. Bring your show and tell too. Sorry I forgot last month.

Quilty Love,
Jackie

Last Meeting Minutes

Monday, September 12, 2022

CALL TO ORDER: The meeting was called to order by President Jackie Sabo at 6:31.

Welcome Visitors: There were no visitors this month.

Approval of June Minutes: Jo Ann Hahn motioned to approve the August meeting minutes. Mary Jo Ward seconded the motion and the minutes were approved.

Program: Our program was presented by Annette Ornelas of Southwind Designs. She shared her curved piecing methods with us and many of her quilts and patterns. The program was enjoyed by all. And more members signed up for the workshop after seeing her method.

Business: President Jackie Sabo led the membership in discussing alternatives for our meeting location.

- Calvary Lutheran Church off Branchview Road – 950 Bradley Street in Concord. The cost is $75. The inquiry was only about Second Monday evening. This location is central to all of Cabarrus County.
- Harrisburg Presbyterian Church on Highway 49 – 4815 State Hwy 49. Second Monday and Tuesday are available. Cost is $5 an hour for cleaning. Kitchen is available
- Senior Center is free and is available the First Monday and Tuesday of the month. Set up and clean-up is provided. Ice is available but not a kitchen. Contact is Teresa, 704-920-3467.
- First Wesleyan Church in Kannapolis - 301 Bethpage Rd. Available second Monday. Would need to share room on the second Tuesday. No set up or take down needed. Donation to church for use.

Many comments were offered on where and what type of location is wanted: central location, tables, no set up or take down by members. Carol Ecker made a motion to appoint a committee to visit the 3 new locations and come back with a recommendation. Sandra Allred amended the motion that no current board members be on the committee. Melba Mick seconded the motion. The motion passed with one opposing vote, preferring a board member be on the committee.

The committee is taking more feedback on what members would like to have in our meeting place. Committee members are Janneke Bahamon, , Carol Harris, Colleen Sain, and Delores Swartz.

Vice President: JoAnn announced our September Birthdays and reminded birthday members to pick up a fat quarter. She held a drawing for a free workshop and Valerie McGarity won. The raffle winner this month was Phyllis Grass.

September Birthdays: Charlotte Doyle 13th, Tom Richardson 14th, Stefanee Levey 17th, and Mona Burtz 17th

Membership: Ann Weaver announced we had 51 members present in person and 1 on our Zoom call. We had one new member join, Katharyn Robertson.

2022 Raffle Quilt – Ann announced the next opportunity to sell tickets is at the Oct 8 Fall Craft Festival at the Cabarrus Brewery. Enough members were interested in helping so Ann will contact the festival to see if we can get a spot.

Treasurer: Johanna Hysell reported an audit was completed and the next one is scheduled. She asked for question and there were none.

Activities: Shanna Rogers announced this is our last month of Round Robin bag exchange. In October we will receive our bags back and can prepare a quilt top for sharing in November.

Programs: Karen announced we are not having a program or workshop in October. Program time will be used to finalize any Quilt Show needs. November will be our Charity Quilts and Challenge Quilts Show and Tell and a wreath making workshop will be hosted by Karen and JoAnn on Tuesday at Rocky River Presbyterian church. December meeting is our holiday party and Tuesday will be a sit and sew.

Please thank Karen for all her effort to provide us with wonderful programs this year. Mary Jo Ward will be our Program chair next year and is in need of someone to co-chair with her.

Community Outreach: Members presented the most recent charity quilts to the membership.

Quilt Show Oct. 14-15, 2022: Julie Love reported on our upcoming quilt show. YLI canceled but another vendor contacted Julie so we will still have 10 vendors. Our new vendor is Sew Fabulous from Winston-Salem. Our other vendors are: JS Linens, My Scrappy Quilter, MLC Findings, K&J Sewing, Carolina Quilt Studio, Concord Sew and Quilt, Sew Perfect Tables, Lynne's Outlet and HHM (member booth).

Sign-ups for helping with the show were available. We need more help. We especially need husbands and sons to help with set up and take down of the piping and drapes on Thursday, Oct 13 and Saturday, Oct 15. Six to eight foot ladders are also needed those days.

Show hours:

- Thursday, Set-up: 8:30am – 6:00pm or completed
- Friday, 8:30 – 6:00pm, Show open 9am – 5pm.
- Saturday, 8:30am – 6:00pm or until take-down is completed, Show open 9am – 4pm.

Quilt Registration: Registration forms were accepted by Stephanie Newbrough during our meeting. She received 39 registrations and needs 40 more. If enough do not come in, she will accept more than 2 quilts from members. Mail in registrations to Stephanie. You can text or call to let her know you have a quilt to enter.

While Elephant booth - Anyone with items to donate will need to bring them already labeled on set up day – the Thursday (Oct 13) before the show. Only cotton fabric and quilting items will be accepted. Label the cotton fabric measurements in ¼ yard increments only. Pricing is established at the show.

Silent Auction is still accepting donations (Terry Patterson & Jo Ann Hahn). Holiday themed items are usually very popular.

Show Raffle Baskets: Carol Harris is still accepting donations for the raffle baskets.

Facebook Advertising: Terry Patterson will update our event on FB (Oct. 1) with a picture of the Kaffe Quilt that will be given away as a door prize. Please share this event on your Facebook page as advertising. Every person that purchases an entry ticket will be put in the drawing for the door prize.

Show and tell was not held.

Meeting Adjourned at 8:30 PM.

Minutes Respectfully Submitted by Sandra Allred, Secretary 09/15/2022

Guild and Member News

QUILT SHOW

Concord Quilt and Sew reached out to me earlier this week and wanted to double their space. This is great news since we do not have enough quilts to fill the space. Stephanie or I will reach out to you in the next week if you have not entered a quilt in the show. It will be embarrassing for us to not have the walls full of quilts. If you have not entered a quilt or have another quilt to enter, please contact me or Stephanie Newbrough immediately.

Next thing you need to know is that we do not have enough volunteers signed up for registration, white elephant, baskets or silent auction. We can also use additional help on Thursday with set up. Specifically white elephant and pipe and drape. I realize that some folks have mobility issues; we will work with you to find some way for you to participate in the show.

This is not MY quilt show, it is OUR quilt show. The success or failure of this show will affect the future of our guild. If the show is not successful, the vendors will not come back. Without the vendors, we won't make any money to fund future programs and quilt shows.

Ending on a good note, I am hiring a moving company to bring the pipe and drape boxes to and from the City Club. That being said, we still have to set them up.

I look forward to hearing from you to help with our show

Julie Love

WHITE ELEPHANT:

Because this event is such a money maker for the guild, we hope you will support this event with your donations. Because of limited space, we will accept only quilting (cotton material), quilting books, magazines and tools. All materials should be measured and labeled by quarters(either by length or fat quarters), half yards, 3/4th yards or full yard(s). If it measures less than one of these, go down. For example, if it measures 1/3rd yards, mark it 1/4th. Bring the items in a storage box labeled with your name. (these boxes will be returned to you.) Large clear plastic bags will also work. Scraps need to be separated from measured material and put in a clear plastic bag. We are asking that you bring your donations on Thursday, the day of the set up but not before 9:30 so as not to interfere with bringing in and organizing the hardware for the quilt displays. The materials should be brought to Marguerite and me for acceptance before entering the White Elephant room. Charlotte Doyle will be in charge of organizing the displays in the room. She will need lots of help in this area so if you haven't signed up yet, consider helping in this room both for Thursday and the days of the show. We appreciate both the donations and your help. Thank you. If you have any questions, you can contact Marguerite or Connie Richardson.

SILENT AUCTION:

Reminder that Silent Auction is still accepting items for the sale table. Please be mindful of your donation. It is not meant to be a drop off for cast-off items. If you don't like it or want probably won't want it either. This wreath a one of my donations. It is 18' diameter. Many thanks.

Guild and Member News

2023 BOARD AND COMMITTEE POSITIONS

As stated in the guild by-laws, the membership will vote on the 2023 board at the October meeting. We are still looking for someone to serve as Vice-President. If you are interested, please contact Kathy Coble or Janneke Bahamon. The following guild members have volunteered for the following positions.

President Sandra Allred
Secretary Jo Ann Hahn

Johanna Hysell will continue for her second year as treasurer in 2023.

We would also like to thank Martha Austin for volunteering to be our librarian as well as Mary Ward and Tiffany Harwood to serve as our Program Co-chairs. Remember that the guild has several committees to serve on if you are interested. Feel free to contact a committee chair if you are interested. Committee chairs are listed at the end of our newsletter.

PROGRAMS & WORKSHOPS

October 10th Program

Our guild will use the October's meeting is for the final planning of our quilt show. There is no workshop planned.

November 14th Program

November's meeting will include our annual food drive for Cooperative Christian Ministries. We also have the chance to hear more about how our quilt donations bless others. We will also have the opportunity to see the finished mystery project tops. The workshop on November 15th will be about wreath making. An example wreath is on page 4 of the newsletter. There is still time to sign up to join the fun and go home with a beautiful wreath.

November 15th Workshop

Wreath Making- Karen and JoAnn
Start saving either pinecones, empty thread spools or fabric strips for desired project.

December 12th Program

December is our annual Holiday Party at First Wesleyan Church 301 Bethpage Road, Kannapolis 28081. There will be no workshop planned this month.

ACTIVITIES

All brown bags need to be turned in at the October meeting. Please look around your sewing room for any extra blocks that might have "escaped". Hoping to see something of your final project (It doesn't have to be completed.) at the November meeting. Any questions? Call Shanna Rogers.

MEMBERSHIP

We had 53 members present at our September meeting, including one on Zoom and one new member. Please welcome Katharyn Robertson of Concord, a friend of Connie and Tom Richardson. We now have a total of 74 members in our guild! We had no visitors join us for the September meeting.

Thank you,
Ann Weaver

RAFFLE QUILT

The next opportunity to sell raffle tickets will be at Gibson Mill on October 8, 2022 from 10- 4. This is race weekend at the Charlotte Motor Speedway. Thank you in advance to Mary Shea, Jo Hysell, Tiffany Harwood and Colleen Sain for volunteering to work this event with me!

We will also be set up at our quilt show on Oct 14 and 15 at the City Club at Gibson Mill. Please consider signing up to help sell tickets there. Speaking of the show, I have 10 Splash of Color pins available for sale for $5.00. Please let me know if you'd like one and I will hold it for you. They will be available at the Membership table at the next meeting.

I don't have the date yet for the Fall fabric sale at Pineapple Fabrics. We may possibly set up there if it can be arranged. I will keep you posted on that.

Guild and Member News

We have been invited to return to the Holiday Festival at Cabarrus Brewery on Saturday, November 26. This is a big event and we have done well in the past. I will be looking for volunteers to help with this event as the time gets closer. Please consider marking your calendars to keep this day free for us!!

Thank you,
Ann Weaver
