To instill in future generations the love and art of quilt making.

FROM THE PRESIDENT'S DESK

Happy Labor Day! I was planning to visit family in SC over Labor Day, but with the recurrence of Covid, I've decided to stay home and sew ☺. I know, such a sacrifice lol.

I just got back from a 4 day sewing retreat at Lake Gaston Retreat in Bracey, VA. It is 3 hours from Concord. Julianne from Cary Quilting Co and her husband own it. It opened last year. It's a great place, but isn't handicapped friendly. Lots of steps. Pricing is too bad either. They are offering a winter discount of 25% off in December, January and February. Which for 9 people is $209.00 for 4 nights (you have to ask for the discount). You can reserve any number of days, but pay the same cleaning fee of $230.00. You have to share bedrooms, but it is set up for sharing, and provide your own food. Check it out on Cary Quilting Co website.

I enjoyed our Guild Picnic. Our drink order was not what we asked for but we all survived. Ordering in was a good plan.

The Christmas Party planning is underway. Thanks to those who offered to help. I may reach out to more when it comes time to set up.

Well, no one has said yes when approached by our nominating committee this year. We cannot have a guild without officers. I know some are worried about our plan to roll into the next position the next year... 2022 VP will become 2023 President and 2024 advisor to the President. That 3rd year won't be hard. Just answering questions and helping out if needed. It is still just a 2 year term of work. We still have VP, Secretary, Treasurer and Membership positions to fill.

To volunteer contact Kathy Coble or Janneke Bahamon.

Here are the positions we have filled. You may be asked to help on a committee by one of these people.

- Comfort quilt record keeper (formally CVAN) - Carol
- Community Outreach - Connie and Tom Richardson
- Facebook – Cynthia Belton
- Hospitality – Kathy Lock
- Public Relations (website & email) - Terry Patterson
- Programs: Karen Bronkhurst & Mary Ward
- Raffle Quilt 2022 - Ann Weaver
- Raffle Quilt 2023/2024 – Sharon Smith & Terry Patterson
- Quilt Show 2022 – Julie Love, Sandra Allred
- Welcome - Ann Weaver- needs a co-chair

Hope you are looking forward to our Applique Program this month. I know I am.

Sandra

PROGRAMS & WORKSHOPS

Join us this month as our speaker, Karen Comstock, talks about the topic, "Busting UFO's". She has some great solutions and is bringing lots of examples to share. The workshop the next day is about wool applique, and we will be making a holiday candle mat/mug rug. Her website is www.quiltricks.com. I am reminding you that we will be meeting at First Wesleyan Church this month. If you have any questions, contact JoAnn Hahn or Karen Bronkhorst.

Next month we will be talking about paper piecing. Benda Smith is our guest speaker. The workshop is paper piecing a Halloween design. Stop by the program table to sign up for the workshop or to find out more about the program.

2021 RAFFLE QUILT

As many of you heard at the August meeting, our raffle quilt sales at the Original Sewing and Quilt Expo in Raleigh on August 5, 6 and 7 were a huge success! We sold over $800 in raffle tickets! We owe a huge debt of gratitude to Sandra Allred who worked two days, Carol Harris who worked all three days, Jo Hysell who isn't even a member yet (!), Martha Austin, Pat Stedwell, Melba Mick, Ona Phillips, Pat Ott and Connie and Tom Richardson! Thank you all so very much!

We have another opportunity to sell tickets on Saturday, September 25, 2021 at Octoberfest sponsored by Cabarrus Brewing Company! This will be a craft market of approximately 40 vendors, an outside event from 11 am to 5 pm at the brewery location at 329 McGill Avenue in Concord. A huge thank you to Carol Harris who made the initial request and paved the way for our approval to set up and sell tickets! I am looking for volunteers in 2 hour shifts of 11-1, 1-3 and 3-5. If you can help, please contact me! It should be a fun day!

On another note, the 2022 raffle quilt is coming along nicely. All the blocks are completed and ready to be sewn together!

Thank you, Ann Weaver

CRAFT BAZAAR

The guild is having an outdoor selling event on October 16th with a rain date of October 23rd at First Wesleyan Church. We plan on doing some advertising to other guilds so we should have more buyers. You can contact Marquette Kaiber or Connie Richardson if you have any questions.

OUTREACH

We need your help. Tom's machine is down, and we are waiting for a response from QBOT to replace the faulty encoders. First, I want to thank Ken and John from K and J Sewing Center in Rockwell, NC for coming to our house and looking at the machine to determine what we needed as it was skipping stitches. This was a two hour observation on their part, and they did not charge us anything. We were so pleased and would like to encourage guild members to do business with them in the future. Their website is <https://www.kjsewing.com/>. Because we do not know how long the machine will be down, I would like to ask for help with the smaller quilt tops that are destined for Hospice. (The VJ quilts can wait as they will not be delivered until the spring of 2022.) I can cut backings and batting for each of the tops. Because they are small, some could be down on your regular sewing machines. You have been so generous with the tops and I would like to see them finished quicker than we may be able to do them. The holdup is that we have to wait for an email response from the company before we can send the order and we do not know how long the response and delivery will be. We can bring the quilts to The First Wesleyan Church on Tuesdays or bring them to the next meeting. Thanks for your help. Connie Richardson

Table Construction

Our table tops are made from furniture grade Baltic birch plywood that is 1.5" thick. We finish off the table top with a beautiful white commercial laminate to ensure snag-free smooth sewing.

Our height-adjustable legs are made from 100% steel, finished in gray. The right material to support your sewing machine investment.

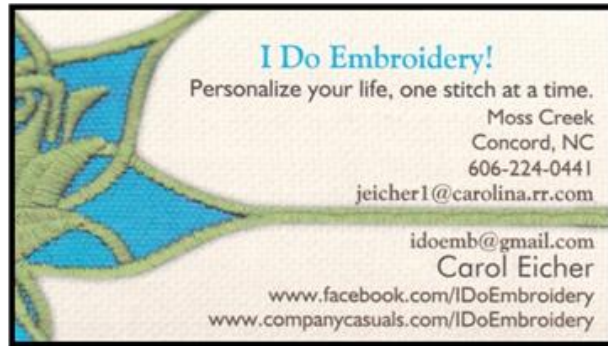

Sew Perfect Tables™ are designed to accommodate ANY sewing machine.

When ordering our sewing tables you will need to specify what type of sewing machine you have. Every table is designed to accommodate each model of sewing machine made to ensure a Sew Perfect fit.

Do you have more than one sewing machine?

You can also order additional sewing machine inserts to quickly adapt your new table to each machine you own. There is no need for multiple tables!
