FROM THE PRESIDENT'S DESK

Hello Quilty Friends,

I'm back! Did you miss me? I missed you. You are the only ones that can understand why I am taking pictures of the tile floors in the cathedrals. I am sorry I missed Sylvia's collage quilting workshop and the picnic.

Last month the board and membership had to make decisions about where our meetings and workshops are held for the rest of this year. For the remainder of the year, we have voted to have our meetings at First Wesleyan Church in Kannapolis and programs at Rocky Presbyterian Church. I know this has been an issue for a while now. This has been a difficult decision. No one location can please everyone. Now we must make plans for next year. We will be discussing where we will meet next year at the meeting on September 12th after the program.

I am really looking forward to our workshop this month. I know Annette Ornelas from my time spent in Fayetteville, but I haven't seen her in a long time. I learned a lot from her. I can't wait to see her and find out what she has been up to. I am sure you will enjoy her trunk show and workshop.

I can't believe its September already. There is so much going on this fall. All Carolinas Shop Hop starts September 1st, National Sew a Jelly Roll Day is September 17th, September 30th-October 2nd is the Asheville Quilt Show and of course, our quilt show is October 14th-October 15th.

Quilty Love,
Jackie

QUILT SHOW

SILENT AUCTION:

Each year our guild sponsors a Silent Auction booth which generates lots of interest and is a great fund raiser for our guild. Show attendees bid on donated items using a number assigned to each bidder. Bidding stops at 3pm Saturday and winning bidders are contacted to bring payment and pick up their winning item. There is also a "Buy Now" option for payment of 3 times the minimum bid. This year, we will also feature some of our larger items and sell them for a set price. If you have a completed item you wish to donate for the Silent Auction, please bring it to the September meeting so that it can be photographed and cataloged for the show. Many thanks

WHITE ELEPHANT:

It was decided at the last meeting that all donated materials will be collected on Thursday, the day of the set-up and on site. Everything should be measured and marked. (Remember items should be marked by quarters, halves, or yards.) Only quilting cottons, tools, books and magazines will be accepted. Bring the items in a storage box with your name on it. (These boxes will be returned to you.) Large clear plastic bags with your name on it will also work. We will need lots of volunteers to set the materials out while Marguerite and I check in the materials. This is always a profitable venture for the guild, so we appreciate your participation in this event. Any questions, feel free to contact us. Thanks, Connie Richardson at clrich39@gmail.com and Marguerite Klaiber at theklaibers@vnet.net.

RAFFLE QUILT

Our raffle quilt was set up at We're So Creative on July 30th for Bag Day. We sold $57 in tickets. Thanks again to Terry Patterson for hosting this event and her awesome volunteers: Julie Love, Alice Witek, Delores Swarta and Mary Jo Ward. We sincerely appreciate your support!!

We hope to have a busy Fall for ticket sales with venues like Oct 8th at Gibson Mill (Nascar Race Weekend), our Quilt Show on October 14th and 15th, possibly Fall and Holiday Festivals and perhaps Sale Day at Pineapple Fabrics. More information about those events as dates become available. Thank you all for making our raffle quilt a successful fundraiser for the guild.

COMMUNITY OUTREACH PROGRAM

We had fun cutting 5" squares and 2 1/2" strips to put into quilt kits at the last Fire Station workshop. We will continue doing this at the next workshop on September 9th. We are considering selling some at the Quilt Show depending on how many we can put together. Remember, you can always work on any charity projects there. For the month of August we delivered 11 quilts to CVAN and 11 quilts to Hospice. Since these quilts were not shown at the last meeting, you can see them on Facebook. You can see some below too. Thank you for your contributions.
